REGISTRANTS TO BE BARRED SOON FROM ENLISTING

According to word received at army headquarters from Washington no person who has registered for the military draft can enlist voluntarily in the military service after Dec. 15 of this year, which is next Saturday. An exception to this is in the case of medical or dental students or hospital internes. A memorandum has been issued at department headquarters as follows:

"1. Under the new regulations approved by the President, no registrant may enlist voluntarily in the military service of the United States from and after Dec. 15, 1917, except that 'under such regulations as the surgeon general may prescribe, and upon receiving permission from the surgeon general to do so, any medical student, hospital interne, dentist, dental student, veterinarian or veterinary student may enlist in the enlisted reserve corps of the medical department. . . ."

"2. All recruiting officers will be governed accordingly, and no registrant will be accepted after such a date that there is not reasonable assurance that the enlistment will be completed before Dec. 15. In the meantime the provisions of the present regulations that a man who has been called for physical examination by his local board is ineligible for voluntary enlistment, will be carefully observed."

REGISTERED MEN MUST TELL WHY THEY WOULD GO

Registered persons in Hawaii who may be counting upon a trip to the mainland are likely to meet with disappointment in their plans unless they have excuses for leaving this territory that sound good and feasible to Capt. F. J. Green, draft officer.

What it means to seek permission from the officer for a trip to the coast without what is considered a sufficient reason was shown yesterday when two men—one white man and one negro—called at the draft office. They wanted to go to the states, they said.

Draft Officer Green asked them what special reason they could give for wanting to leave the territory at this time.

They replied that they had no special reason save that they wanted to go. This did not sound good to the captain and after failing to find any good reason for granting permits he told the two that they would have to stay in Hawaii. Almost daily half a dozen or so of men appear at the draft office seeking permission to leave for the mainland. Generally they are given this privilege, but in cases where no suitable reason can be advanced they are refused it.

LEONARD WITHINGTON GOES TO SAN ANTONIO FOR TRAINING CAMP

Leonard Withington, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Withington and former newspaper man here, is now on his way to the San Antonio training camp, having received a cablegram authorizing his enlistment there shortly before he was leaving for the mainland. He has been visiting his parents here for several weeks.

Withington was already in the aeronautical division of the signal corps. He has spent most of the last ten years on the mainland in newspaper and chamber of commerce work.

WEALTH EXPOSED. AS IDLE GOAL

"The Lust of the Ages," the current Bijou attraction, featuring the film star Lillian Walker, is notable for its unique theme, originality of filming and subtle dramatic interest. It is a story of avarice, transplanted from age to age and told in three episodes, each in a different era of the world's history. The goal of so many persons in life—wealth—is exposed as a fatuous objective, one which usually brings more misery and suffering into life than peace and happiness. From the 20th century the tale reverts to the arcadian period when love and contentment ruled the land.

The tricks of the camera men are sufficient to make the play a success even though it were devoid of plot or theme. Miss Walker is first seen as a girl of today, who, because of the tragedy of her mother's life, regards money as the curse of the ages; the drama then takes one back to the Arcadian age and another depicts the love of a prince and a princess who sacrifice their lives in an effort to avoid a world war. The locale in this setting is obviously German.

"The Lust of the Ages" is at the Bijou tonight and tomorrow night.

A SURPRISE PACKAGE

The last steamer from the coast brought a surprise package for a local firm. The express man carried a big box into the store of the Hub Clothing Company on King street, opposite the Union Grill, which when opened brought forth an extraordinary variety of holiday neckwear. It appears that the Eastern buyer for the firm realizing that existing conditions due to the war would make his Christmas a wonderful one for neckwear as holiday gifts, bought this extra case of fine neckties of his own volition. The new ties have been marked from 50 cents $1.50, really remarkable values, and Christmas shoppers will do well to look them over early, as the Hub has a supply of Christmas boxes to put them in and they will no doubt sell rapidly. The Hub, as everyone knows, is still in their temporary quarters at 78 South King street, just two doors away from Fort.—Adv.

Highlander Milk

Condensed Milk makes cooking a success - not a speculation

Cooking is always a success where Highlander Condensed Milk (full cream) is used. There's a good reason, too, why the careful housewife should use this famous brand. Firstly, it ensures better flavoured dishes. It is easy to prove this. Try a dressing where Highlander Condensed Milk has been used against one in which ordinary milk or some other condensed milk has been employed—you can at once taste the superior flavour of Highlander. Then, too, it makes food more digestible. Scientists tell us that the process of condensation modifies the caseinogen and thus makes the milk more digestible.

Then, too, Highlander Condensed Milk is richer—you have a standard full cream milk against a fluctuating product, of varying quality and richness.

Made from the world's finest milk, Highlander is the standard brand for tens of thousands of women who have proved its superiority. One test will suffice—you owe it to yourself to make it.

There are hundreds of recipes in the big 200-page beautifully illustrated Highlander Cook Book. Write for a free copy to-day—address "Highlander," Dept. "A," Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., Agents, Honolulu.
